Section 2:

Our master's programs in the Bard Center for Environmental Policy train leaders to address complex environmental challenges through an interdisciplinary curriculum that integrates science, economics, policy, and law. The program begins with a year of rigorous, interdisciplinary coursework, followed by a required professional internship and a student-led capstone project in the second year. Throughout the program, students engage deeply with equity, justice, and evidence-based solutions.

With that in mind, we'd like to hear more about your experience with the applicant. You can either answer a few brief open-ended questions or upload a letter of recommendation - whichever you prefer.

I would prefer to:

☐ Upload a letter of recommendation addressing the applicant's strengths and areas for growth

☐ Answer the following brief open-ended questions:

- What strengths do you see in the applicant that would support their success in a pre-professional program?
- What areas for growth could challenge the applicant during their time in our program?
- Please share any additional observations that could help the Admission Committee better understand the applicant's readiness for the Bard CEP.
